is the name of an organization lately called into existence by former officers and soldiers of the 98th, 93d, 75th, 27th Infantry, the 5th and 12th Cavalry, of Pennsylvania, as well as the 29th New York Volunteer Regiment, and already numbers over one hundred members. The object of the Legion, which is principally of a civic nature, is the maintenance of sentiments of good fellowship among late comrales in the war against Southern aggression; the purchase and maintenance of a burnal place in a suitable cemetery; the erection of a befitting monument thereon; the burial with military honors, and at the expense of the organization, of deceased members; and the extension of the hand of friendship and succor to them that may be in distress. A constitution and by-laws, smallar to those of the Scott Legion, have been adopted, all officers, soldiers, and marines fought in the late war are cordially invited to join this Legion. The present headquarters of the organization are at Ladner's Military Hall, Third street, below Green, where the Legion meets on the evening of the first Thursday in every month, and where applications for mem-bership may be made. The entrance fee has been fixed at one dollar, and the contributions at twenty-five cents per month; and to create a fund, the first annual ball of the Legion will be held at National Guards' Hall on Thursday, the 1st of March.

SECOND PENNSYLVANIA VETERAN AR-TILLERY.—The 2d Pennsylvania Heavy Artillery Regiment was to leave Petersburg, Va., yesterday, en route for Philadelphia, to be mustered out. The 2d Pennsylvania is the largest regiment that took the field during the late Rebellion. Over four thousand men have served in its ranks and about one thousand will return home with it. It participated in all of Grant's great battles, from the Rapidan to Petersburg, and took a conspicuous part in the final siege of Richmond, holding a highly important position on the small peninsula formed by the James and Appoint x rivers, a short distance from Bermuda Hundred. The regiment is a veteran organization, having left Philadelphia for the seat of war over four years since, one of the first to go, and it is, believed the last Pennsylvamia regiment to return home. The regiment is commanded by Colonel Strawbridge at present, but was originally recruited by Colonel A. A. Gibson, United States Army, formerly Commandant at Fort Delaware.

LADY DROWNED WHILE SKATING .- A and accident occurred on the Schuylkill river, above Girard avenue, vesterday afternoon, by which a young married woman named Beale was drowned. She, with her husband and a number of others, were engaged in skating, when the ice suddenly gave way, precipitating five, among whom were three females, into the water. All were rescued with the exception of Her body was recovered and taken to the Park Police Station, and subsequently to her residence, Poplar street, above Tairteenth.

MORRIS, THE SWINDLER.-Robert Morris alias Purcell, alias Jones, etc. etc., who was arrested by special officers Cooper and Roberts, charged with swindling a number of business men in this city, had a further hearing yesterday afternoon at the Central Station. AN OLD MAN FROZEN TO DEATH .- An old and, unknown man was found iate Monday atternoon, trozen to death, in an open field on the Ellisburg turnpike, about three miles from Camden. From appearances he was about seventy years of age, and had been dead three or four days. Coroner Roberts brought the body into Camden, where he will keep it for a few days, in order that his friends or acquaintances may have an opportunity to recognize it. De-ceased is bald-headed, had on a coat of dark steel-mixed cloth, clean white over and under shirts, darkish pants, with a patch on one knee, nearly new shoes, white woollen stockings, and his tace had been smoothly shaven. All his apparel seemed clean and warm, but there was nothing found in his possession that would lead to his recognition.

SANITARY MEASURES .- The City Council seem to have become awakened to the necessity of commencing at an early day to presses against the anticipated approach of the chotera. They have given imperative orders to Marshal Campbell to remove all nuisances, such as pig pens, etc., before winter is broken up, and that officer will commence operations at once. However unpleasant to himself the task may be, it is an order which he has to obey. The measure, however, is one of great importance to the city in a sanitary point of view, and should have been enforced long ago.

HEARING OF CASES.-The cases of the our men arrested on the charge of having participared in the fracas on Saturday nigat, in which the two brothers Hoy were so danger-ously stabbed in the abdomen, were partially investigated Monday before the Mayor. In order, however, to obtain other evidence, further investigation was postponed, and the
